RECEIPTS OF FLOUR AND WHEAT AT THE WEST.

The receipts of Flour and Wheat at the principal receiving points in the West during the past week compare with the receipts of the week previous as follows:

	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bu.	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bu.
Chicago	30,415	678,963	28,911	411,378
Milwaukee	7,556	326,590	6,963	246,175
St. Louis	8,099	161,064	7,049	94,918
Cincinnati	15,336	22,869	14,099	29,167
Toledo	30,570	118,971	19,171	65,494
Cleveland	13,291	75,546	11,496	40,078
Detroit	30,820	28,394	28,543	31,744
Total	136,650	1,277,263	116,641	918,911
Total wheat and flour, bu		1,960,613		1,502,116

From the above it will be seen that the deliveries all over the West have been much more liberal during the past week—showing an increase of wheat and flour (reduced) of 458,497 bushels. This increase was mainly due to the buoyancy in the markets and the improvement in prices. Chicago, it will be seen, receives its usual proportion of about one-third of the whole.

Galena and Chicago Union Railroad.

This old pioneer line seems to have taken its usual place this year among the leading tributaries to the Chicago market. Its freight business is enormous, and the economical studies of the past two years appear to be producing a rich harvest. The earnings of September, clear of all expenses, ordinary and extraordinary, are a little over two per cent. upon its whole capital stock.

The road is now in splendid order, a great deal of labor having been expended upon it during the past three months, and the probability is, that with increased receipts for the next two months there will be still diminished expenses.

Last week the receipts of wheat alone by this road amounted to 242,906 bushels, and of flour, 7,488 barrels—making a total of 280,346 bushels, besides about 60,000 bushels of other grains.

New York and Erie Railroad.

Our readers will remember that we said the Erie railroad had fallen into good hands when Mr. Receiver Marsh took charge of it. Under his management, and with Chas. Minot for Superintendent, everything that intelligent energy can do to accommodate the Western trade, will not be wanting.

The opening of their fast freight line in connection with the Lake Shore and the Michigan Southern Roads, is evidence that they understand the wants of our reviving business. By this line, freight is delivered to our merchants in four days from New York, without extra charge for fast time. The Westward bound freight is rapidly increasing, and flour and other articles are being shipped by it. Our merchants have reason for congratulation that the Erie road is again in the hands of competent managers. Mr. Forsyth, No. 54 Dearborn street, is the agent for the road.

The Kansas Election.

The majority in Leavenworth County for the adoption of the Wyandott Constitution is 38; majority against the Constitution in Doniphan City is 63. It is estimated that Doniphan County will give 200 majority against the Constitution; Lecompton gives 137 majority against; Rising Sun gives 82 majority against; Sumner gives 70 majority and Lawrence 890 majority for the Constitution.

Another Dog Fight.

The telegraph brings us the details of a savage prize fight which came off in Canada yesterday, between Australian Kelly and a Boston bruiser named Price. The latter was victorious on the twelfth round. The usual number of "mugs" were smashed and "peepers" put in mourning, and a great deal of "claret" was spilled around miscellaneously, though not half as much as there should have been.

From Washington.

[Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.]
WASHINGTON, Oct. 4, 1859.

Mr. Majors, of the firm of Russell, Majors & Co., contractors for transportation to Utah, states that the cost under that head has been much diminished since the army there has been reduced to 2,500. Still, 1,506 picked men are employed, with 1,300 wagons, and 15,000 oxen and horses. Few of the last named are wintered in Utah, as the government land in the valleys have been squatted upon by the Mormon sovereigns. If portions of these were allotted to contractors to supply the army in Utah with provisions from products of the Territory, there could be no need of sending supplies from the Mississippi Valley at an expense of millions of dollars. Russell, Majors & Co.'s draught animals are mainly returned to the neighborhood of Fort Laramie, to be wintered upon unoccupied government lands there. I hear that the present contractors state that their bid for the next contract has been at the lowest mark consistent with safety in business. They also state that they are able to close up their affairs without making material sacrifice of sales of stock, &c.

It is said by Col. Forney's personal friends here that he has consented to be supported by his Anti-Lecompton Democratic friends for the Clerkship, with the understanding that they will go with the Republicans for Speaker, the latter, of course, to vote for Col. F. He does not expect approval by Judge Douglas.

Fire in Leavenworth.

A very destructive fire occurred in Leavenworth City, on Saturday night last, by which the Bay State Planing Mills, owned by Messrs. Higginbotham & Co., and a building known as the City Foundry, were destroyed. The total loss is estimated at about $20,000. The property was insured for about $3,000.—St. Joseph West, 4th.

The Unfortunate Fillibusters.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 5.—The Fillibusters did not leave Berwick's, but went down the river in the tow-boat Panther, without a sufficient supply of provisions, and were unable to await better accommodations. The men have since landed at South-West Pass.

Collector Hatch still refuses a clearance to the steamship Philadelphia. Mr. Hatch's great precaution has doubtless frustrated the expedition.

The California Mails.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Only two of the steamers advertised to sail for California yesterday, left this port—the Baltic and Northern Light. Wm. D. H. Johnson, the contractor to carry the California mails by the Nicaragua route, having notified the Post Master General, that, owing to circumstances, he could not fulfil his contract, the provisional contract for nine months, to carry mails via Panama, was completed with Mr. Vanderbilt, and all the mails went by the Northern Light.

☞ The authorities of Hartford have decided that the young man who killed another with his bayonet, on the day of the foolish parade in honor of Mr. Seymour's return from Russia, was not even guilty of an impropriety, and he has been set at liberty. The indictment against Dr. L. P. Brockett, who lately committed extensive forgeries in that city, has just been bought up by his bondsman, and he is also enjoying the blessings of freedom. The expenses of satisfying the Hartford Judiciary and Prosecuting Attorney on this occasion was, we believe, $3,000. It is not yet known whether residents of Hartford who have neither friends nor money can commit murder and forgery with impunity. Probably, however, they cannot.—N. Y. Tribune.

FIRE AT YPSILANTI.—By the trains from the west last evening, we learn that a fire was raging in the woodshed of the Michigan Central Railroad Company at Ypsilanti during the afternoon. The flames had communicated to and destroyed two frame dwellings situated near the sheds. We could learn nothing of the origin of the fire, or the amount of damage done.—Detroit Free Press, 6th.

ARRIVAL OF GOVERNOR BANKS.—Governor Banks arrived last evening by the Great Western Railway, and was received by Col. Dickey, the President of the Agricultural Society, and Mr. E. N. Wilcox, of the Executive Committee. He has accepted the invitation of the Hon. Z. Chandler, and will stay with that gentleman while in the city.—Detroit Free Press, 5th.

A REMINISCENCE.—Admiral Hope, who was repulsed at the Pei-Ho, was Captain of the British frigate Eudymion, which had the engagement with the President, commanded by Decatur, at the opening of the last war with England. After a long and sharp engagement, it will be remembered, the American vessel surrendered to the British Squadron.—N. Y. Times.

THE CITY.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was the finest specimen of our fall style of weather.

POLICE COURT.—The docket yesterday was a light one.

RECORDER'S COURT.—This tribunal was at work yesterday upon minor cases.

THE ROLLING MILLS.—We are glad to learn that the re-rolling mills of Captain Ward, on the North Branch, are in full operation.

FALSE ALARM.—The bell rang an alarm for the Fourth District yesterday afternoon. Nothing came of it.

☞ A gentleman and wife can find pleasant board by addressing box 2399. See advertisement.

NEW PAPERS.—We hear rumors of new newspaper enterprises to be started. Among others, Mr. Dutch is moving in the matter of a weekly, to go into operation in November.

HANDS OFF.—Will some kindly policeman shake hands with the lamp-post on the Sherman House corner, and remove a nuisance to pedestrians. That tin hand business is played out.

GOOD.—H. Schroeder was mulcted in $75 yesterday, in the Recorder's Court, for leasing his house to be occupied as a house of ill fame. This method of checking the evil is a good one.

THE JAIL.—We learn that Mr. Petrie, the new turnkey, though formerly and long known in that capacity at the jail, enters upon his new duties on Monday next.

NOBLE ACT.—A noble and daring act was performed by J. D. Sinclair last evening, in rescuing a sailor from drowning, who fell into the river in jumping from one vessel to another. It is Mr. Sinclair's second deed of the kind.

THE RELIEF CONCERT.—The Great Western Band, and other resident musical talent, gave a most charming concert last evening to an excellent house, at Metropolitan Hall, for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless.

THE TWELFTH STREET MATTER.—If the Herald and Democrat will make the inquiry at the proper source instead of further quibbling they will find that the policeman who took bribes on Twelfth street has been discharged from the Police. Will they have the honesty to say so?

PLATFORM BREAKING.—Yesterday a vessl ran into and destroyed a platform on the North Branch. This "Platform" was no relative of President Buchanan, but simply a temporary affair to aid in putting up the Kinzie street bridge.

NEW OMNIBUS LINES.—We notice two new omnibus lines in operation. A line has been put on North Clark street, starting from the Post Office. A vehicle is running marked "Post Office and New Gas Works," the latter near our southwestern limits.

TAKING IN A STRANGER.—Martin Hart a clerk in Witkowa's Clothing store on Lake street, was arrested yesterday on complaint of W. R. Potter of Babcock's Grove, charging him with a daring attempt to swindle him out of $10 by the game of receiving it in payment for a coat and then refusing to give him either until the sum of $16 was made up for the latter. He was held in $500 by Justice Akin.

BARE OR FORBEAR.—We learn that the gallant infantry corps, the Highland Guard, are to assemble this evening for re-organization. A prominent question will be, it is said, whether the company shall pant, less for distinction than comfort, or go it bare-kneed. Without any intention of interfering our opinion, we hope the largest number will vote for the trowfers.

"I'M GLAD I'M IN THIS ARMY."—On Saturday, October 22, all the Sabbath Schools of the city are to turn out in a grand procession, with three bands of music. The procession will be formed at 2 o'clock P.M., and after marching, will proceed to the Court House and vicinity thereof, where interesting exercises, addresses, singing, &c., will take place.

THE STUFF NEW STATES ARE MADE OF.—Among the passengers west over the G. & C. U. R. R., on Wednesday evening, were a company of thirty-two Swedes, en route for St. Paul. They left Guttenberg, Sweden, on the 11th of July, on board the American ship Robert M. Sloman. Owing to disasters and detentions their entire journey from Guttenberg to St. Paul will fall very little short of three months, despite of which the whole party were merry and stout hearted.

LARCENIES.—In yesterday's Police Court John Carrol was arraigned for stealing a braided team whip, the property of Henry Brookman and John C. Wooley. Held in $100 bail. John Lyons, stealing two whips from the same, was also held to bail.

A man named John Goldrop was arrested on a charge of having stolen a coat, pants and a pocket book containing $15.25, from a vessel in the river, and was held in $300 bail.

A NEW PROFESSION.—It will do now to tell that among the bills presented to the managers of the late Fair, was a modest one of $10 per diem, sent in by an attache of one of our cotemporaries for his valuable services in aiding to treat country editors and those holding, by sponge or fraud, dead-head reporter's tickets This sum was deemed an over liberal fee for a self-appointed gentleman usher, and was thrown out; whereupon the hero had Gen. Tilghman arrested, to enforce his claim. It isn't settled yet, but the profession is a new one—gentleman usher at Fairs, to treat and smile with the Society's guests.

SOLOMON OUTDONE.—There was a case tried in yesterday's Police Court involving the right and title to three feather pillows, all as well involved in dirt as was the case in doubt. Mrs. Mulgarey claimed two, her neighbor, Mrs. Collins, two. There were but three, and over the odd pillow arose a war of words and a cloud of fancy swearing, both legal and profane. How to solve it was a puzzle until his Honor bade each dame to take one pillow she was sure was hers. It was done—each hugged her own. The pillow in contest was then examined, and the two dirtiest pillows were awarded to the fortunate holder to make up a pair. The disappointed Mrs. Collins is to carry the case to the Supreme Court.

AN INVASION FROM THE RURAL DISTRICTS.—Wisconsin is being overrun by bears. Our city justices of the Peace are just now all in a flutter over an invasion every way more terrible. A country justice, Mr. Huntoon, elected in the adjoining town of Evanston, finding business dull in that virtuous and well-mannered precinct, has actually packed up his traps, and moved his justice shop into Chicago, and hung out his shingle—claiming to have taken advice, by which he has decided on his right to dispense justice anywhere in the State. No wonder our Chicago magistrates are some skeered—for if times in the country grow duller, what is to hinder, under Mr. Huntoon's rule, all their country brethren from coming into town. There are some less than five thousand in the State, and competition may reduce rates far below living profits. The case is a novel one, we believe.

REV. A. L. BROOKS.—We understand that Rev. A. L. Brooks, the talented and much esteemed pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church in this city, has received and accepted a call to the Second Presbyterian Church at Indianapolis. A little more than three years ago Mr. Brooks was installed as pastor over his charge in this city, numbering then about twenty, and occupying a small frame building on Union street near West Market Hall. Since then the church and society have built a large and very attractive stone edifice on the corner of Carpenter and West Washington streets, and one of the most striking ornaments of the West Division, and the membership has increased to more than two hundred, while the congregation is large and influential. These facts speak for themselves, and Mr. Brooks will carry the hearty good wishes of very many here that he may be as successful in his new field of labor as in Chicago.

Real Estate Meeting.

Pursuant to call, a large number of real estate owners, with a considerable number of business men, met at the office of S. H. Kerfoot & Co. last evening, to compare views in regard to Chicago real estate. The subject in its relations embraced nearly the entire business of the city, and we are sorry that a pressure compels us to make but a meagre report of the excellent remarks of the several speakers.

S. H. Kerfoot, Esq., called the meeting to order, and on his motion ex-Alderman Wm. Jones was called to the chair, and B. F. Haddock, Esq., was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman called on Hon. B. S. Morris to explain the object of the meeting. He alluded to the admitted fact that there was little sale for real estate, and attributed it to the general cry of "hard times." You met it at every corner, and it had the effect that a salutation from every friend one meets that he was very unwell would have upon his health. If the man was not sick he would become so. Property was selling, it was reported, in St. Louis, Cincinnati and other cities, at fair prices, and it was more from a lack of confidence than anything else that it was not selling here. There was as much money and as much property in the country as ever before, and there was no good reason why property in this city should not have a ready sale.

Col. E. D. Taylor was next called. He regarded the questions before the meeting as involving questions of great importance. There had been far too much croaking in Chicago. The city was doing well. Commerce generally was active. Buildings were occupied. Our grain receipts showed a healthy state of trade. Our shipments were correcting the exchanges of the country. The trouble had been that too many of our dealers had gambled in grain. They had paid more for it than it would bring in eastern markets. This policy was suicidal and should be stopped at once and forever. If a few had fallen, that was not reason that all should fall. The resources of the country that was tributary to our city were exhaustless. Though we did lack capital now, that country would make us rich. Croaking could not stop the progress of the country. There was every reason for cheerful energy. The city, and the West generally, was prospering, and it would continue to prosper more and more.

S. S. Hayes, Esq., was next called. Chicago, he said, must yield to the general laws of trade. Many of her citizens were embarrassed, and recovery was a work of time.—But he believed we were now rapidly recovering. Chicago is far ahead of what any one would have dared to hope ten years ago. He mentioned several pieces of property which at a forced sale to-day would show an appreciation of five hundred per cent. in ten years. If property was too high, it should sell at lower rates. Holders who need money should put it up, a portion of it, at public auction, and let others come in and share the profits. He referred to our grain receipts, and showed that they were more every week than those of St. Louis, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit and Milwaukee all put together. A city with such immense resources could not long remain under a cloud of adversity. These facts show that this is the natural point for the cereals of the West to concentrate. New York had attained nearly all its growth in one generation, and in another Chicago would be as large as New York is now. There had been faults in our commercial system. We had paid to much interest for money, and this and other errors should be avoided in the future. The importance of manufactures was appropriately noticed. The speaker advised forbearance in those who held obligations against honest, industrious men. This policy was not only founded in justice, but it was wise and would promote the best interests of the city.

S. H. Kerfoot moved that a committee be appointed to collect facts and compare the prices of real estate in this and other cities.

James H. Rees, C. S. Waller, S. S. Hayes, M. S. Patrick and J. S. Buchanan were appointed to attend to this duty.

R. S. Blackwell, Esq., was then called. He made rather a long speech, but it was full of apt illustrations, valuable facts, sharp points and sparkling wit, and kept the audience in the best possible humor.

Ex-Alderman Ellithorpe was then called to speak for manufactures in their bearing upon the price of real estate. He contended that the high rate of money was the main reason why real estate was so high. Proprietors were ground to the dust by it. He stated that he had himself paid in usurious interest, since he had been in Chicago, $11,500. This high rate of interest was the reason why manufactures could not prosper.

B. F. Bradley had commenced, when we were obliged to leave, what promised to be a very capital speech.

On the whole, we are inclined to think the meeting will do good, as it will tend to drive away the blues and inspire confidence, certainly among those who attended it.

IMPORTANT CHANGE IN POST OFFICE HOURS.—Post Master Cook will earn the thanks of our community, at least for the experiment, even if the change soon to be inaugurated proves to be only such. He proposes to keep the Post Office open for delivery purposes until midnight, instead of closing as now at eight. There are six mails from the East and West arriving in the evening near 8 o'clock. Of course, when the closing hour arrives there must be some letters still undistributed. Thus many persons cannot get their Eastern letters but once a day. If the change is made, all box letters coming either in the morning or night mails will be ready for delivery to persons calling as soon thereafter as they can be distributed prior to midnight.

THE PHILADELPHIA EXCURSIONISTS.—The Philadelphia excursionists, comprising the Directors of the Pennsylvania Central R. R., their wives, sons and daughters, reached this city yesterday afternoon by a special train over the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago R. R They have taken rooms at the Richmond House. They will remain in this city a day or two. The list of these visitors is as follows:

W Butcher & wife, J W Merrill & wife, B T Curtis & wife, T T Firth & wife, Mrs Reynolds and Miss Firth, W & J Morris, Miss Clara & Julia Mellon, Mrs Heister & Miss B Wilson, Miss Megargee & Denny, Geo w Cass & wife, E V Clark & F W Thompson, Miss Ada Thomson & Miss Buchanan, Miss H R Bacon & Miss Butcher, Misses Thompsons, (three), Josiah Bacon & two sons, G D Rosengarten & two sons, Thos Mellon & son, Jno Hulene & son, Wm B Foster, Vice President, Wm R Thompson, Frank Firth, H H Houston, W H Wilson, B F Downing, Jno W Hunter.

This pleasant party of visitors was serenaded last evening by the Great Western Band.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM CONFLAGRATION.—A second alarm of fire yesterday afternoon proceeded from what might have proved a most serious conflagration, had it not been timely checked. At Munn & Scott's large elevator warehouse on the west side of the North Branch, below Kinzie street bridge, from some imperfection in the furnace arrangements, as is supposed, the flooring was set on fire by sparks falling. It had burned slowly for some time before discovered. The floor was flooded with water almost instantly, and the fire extinguished.

"THE OLD FOLKS."—This celebrated troupe, accompanied by Hall's famous Boston brass band, and assisted by the popular young New England vocalist, Miss Jennie Twitchell, give their first concert at Metropolitan Hall to-night on which occasion they offer a programme of rare attractiveness. The fervent old tunes our fathers loved so well to sing—the quaint "old rig" of ye ancient time, will all be presented to-night. See advertisement.

A LITTLE FIRE.—Some mischievous person set fire to a pile of finished joiner work on Dearborn street, near Randolph, last evening, causing a slight alarm. It was extinguished with a few pails of water.

A MALICIOUS STATEMENT.—George V. Byrd, as agent of John A. Washington, in this city, denies authoritatively the statement in yesterday's Democrat that the latter's notes were gone to protest here. A matter at issue between Mr. W. and another party, is the sole foundation of the assertion complained of.

DANCING.—G. Mirasole will open his Academy for the reception of all wishing to join his juvenile class, on Saturday afternoon, October 8, at which time he extends a cordial invitation to all ladies and parents.

BURNING OF THE CHICAGO CHEMICAL WORKS.

Loss $7,000.

About eight o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in the building known and used as the Chicago Chemical Works of Messrs. W. H. Chappell & Co., of St. Louis, situated just below the Reform School, five miles south of the city, which, from the distance from aid of the city Fire Department and the combustible character of the structure and stock was entirely consumed.

The fire originated in the following manner: The firm had an old stock of tar oil which was saved from the Chemical Works on the North Side at the time they were burned, which they wished to refine, and for this purpose it was run through a boiler heated by steam. The smoke from the tar boiler, owing to the draft from the steam boiler, was drawn under the furnaces of the latter and at once ignited and almost instantaneously set the whole building in a blaze, and in less than half an hour reduced it to a heap of ashes. The building, a large frame structure, was erected in the spring of the present year for the manufacture of sulphuric, muriatic and nitric acids, as also for a preparation of coal tar for cement roofing, the fire resulting as above from the latter.

Only a small amount of the stock was saved, the entire loss being between $7,000 and $8,000. In the fixtures of the Works, the most valuable of the same was a large platinum still, costing $5,000, formerly in Dr. Blaney's Chemical Works on the North Branch, which were destroyed by fire last year. It was saved at that time to pass through a severer ordeal as above. It was much injured but can be repaired for $500.

A very sad feature of the disaster was the accident to the foreman of the Works, long with the North Branch establishment of Dr. Blaney, L. F. Hamleff, who was shockingly burned in attempting to shut off the steam from the coil, by which means he was immediately enveloped in a sheet of flame. He was taken to the City Hospital.

There was an insurance of $2,800 on the building and fixtures, and $1,500 on the stock, all in companies represented here by L. D. Olmsted, Esq. The loss falls upon parties who will not be affected or dampened by it pecuniarily, who have a tract of twenty acres in the locality of the destroyed works, which, from the known character, energy and capital of Messrs. C. & Co., creates a certainty that a large manufacturing enterprise will spring up on that site.

Indeed, an association had been formed called the Chicago Chemical and Coal Oil Company, into which the Works just burned were to have been absorbed as a neucleus, having just been appraised for such purpose. The enterprise will doubtless be only temporarily stayed by the disaster.

THE HORSE RAILROAD INJUNCTION.—Yesterday afternoon, Judge J. M. Wilson returned the case of the injunction against the City Railway Company, in the matter of a double track on State street, back into the hands of the Master in Chancery, Ira Scott, Esq., for a further hearing.

☞ The Chicago Academy of Medical Sciences will hold their regular monthly meeting this evening, in the rooms of Sloan's College, Methodist Church block, commencing at half-past seven o'clock.

☞ We would invite particular attention to the sale at auction, by Gilbert & Sampson, of superior furniture, carpets, etc., at their store, No. 82 Lake street, this morning, at 9½ o'clock.

THE PRIZE FIGHT.

Australian Kelly Whipped in Twelve Rounds!

BUFFALO, October 6.—The prize fight this morning at Point Abino, in Canada, resulted in Price whipping Kelly in twelve rounds, occupying forty minutes.

Kelly was seconded by Harry Gribben and Johnny Morrissey, and Price by Heenan and Mackey.

At 1.40 P.M. the men shook hands, and stripped for the fight. Kelly appeared like one bunch of muscle, and the more powerful of the two, while Price appeared clean-limbed, lighter, and more active.

Price held $200 in his hand, offering to bet it that Kelly could not whip him in an hour, but nobody took it.

First Round.—Considerable sparring; Price smiling and good-natured; Kelly seeming cool and resolute. After one or two light passes, they clinched, Price throwing Kelly, but getting a black eye in the tussle.

2d round—The men went briskly to work. After some counter-hitting, Price struck Kelly on the left eye drawing the first blood; some brisk fighting done. Kelly struck Price a blow which Heenan claimed foul, saying he would claim the fight if it was done again. It was decided not foul. Price carried his corner by the second round—drawn.

3d round—Some wide sparring and one or two body blows exchanged. They clinched, Price throwing Kelly.

4th round—Without much ado, Kelly struck full for Price's breast, but missed the blow, Price dodging quickly and completely. Price backed to the corner; they clinched and Kelly knocked Price down.

5th round—Kelly came up more confident, Price looking not quite so fresh, though smiling—both guarded and cautious. Closed in briskly and a dozen or two blows were exchanged. Kelly down. Two to one offered on Price with no takers.

6th round—Both came to the scratch after merely washing their mouths with water. Kelly led off with a stinger under Price's ear, receiving one full in the eye in return, and clinched and Kelly was thrown heavily.

7th round—Both came up smiling and spirited. Kelly backed by Price into the corner. Kelly's eye bleeding profusely. Price bleeding on the neck. Five to two offered on Price. Heavy blows interchanged and Kelly dropped.

8th round—Very short round. After sparring less than quarter of a minute Price knocked Kelly down.

9th round—Price improving, and backed Kelly to the corner. After some sparring they clinched, Price throwing Kelly.

10th round—Price again backed Kelly to the corner. They clinched, Price giving Kelly some severe body blows. Kelly fell. This round lasted one minute.

11th round—Price still backing Kelly to the corner; a few passes were exchanged; Price knocked Kelly down. This round lasted half a minute.

12th round—Price very confident—Kelly more so than before; after some light sparring, some hard fighting was done, Price getting Kelly in chancery, and punching him severely.

Upon time being called for the 13th round, Kelly's seconds came and threw up his cap—a signal of his defeat.

The fight lasted 40 minutes.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Late last night an official dispatch was received from New Orleans, stating that the steamer Philadelphia had been seized by the U. S Marshal. An answer was immediately transmitted, directing the retention of the captain and crew in view of judicial proceedings, and to hold the vessel if it be found. She was employed in a fillibustering expedition. She will be subject to forfeiture. The dispatch further states that the artillery company from Baton Rouge, was on the way to the point where it was said the fillibusters have congregated, ready to be used by the Marshal as occasion may require, in the effort to arrest them. Never has more earnestness been exhibited with regard to any similar expedition, than in relation to this one, for the frustration of which most vigorous measures have been adopted. So far the efforts of the federal officers have been successful, and it is reliably asserted that their proceedings are altogether satisfactory to the Government.

WASHINGTON, Oct 6.—The President has recognized Henry A. Pierce as Consul for the Kingdom of the Hawaiian Islands, for Boston, New Bedford, Portsmouth and Portland, to reside at Boston.

While it is authoritatively stated that it may be that our Chinese Minister of War did set out for Pekin, and is there now, after having exchanged ratifications of the treaty, no official advices of that effect have been received at the State Department. It may be mentioned that Capt. Tatnall, in a letter dated the 4th of July, says that by invitation of the Governor of the Province, Mr. Ward had designated the 8th of that month for a conference with him.

A second edition of Judge Black's pamphlet has been issued, with an appendix in reply to Senator Douglas's Wooster speech, and to the criticisms of different kinds which have appeared in other quarters.

From Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—New Orleans papers of Saturday, received this evening by the Southern mail, furnish Tampico dates of the 26th.

Letters from the Liberal Camp make light of the recent engagement between Generals Wall and Degolado. The latter is still near Villita from whence he sends word to the Commander-in-chief that his division is nearly organized.

The brigade of Zacatecas was supported by six pieces. A numerous park of artillery had also incorporated itself with the division of the centre.

Numerous desertions from the enemy are reported. At one time 500 of the infantry, and at another a numerous body of cavalry. There was no concentration of troops for a combined attack, nor does it appear that any definite plans have yet been decided upon.

The instructions sent to Mobile not only refer to fillibusters connected with the present expedition but to those who went out in the former one, in the afterwards wrecked Susan. The order is to arrest them.

Commercial restrictions of Brazil have been farther relaxed. This is a subject in which the Administration has taken active interest. An official dispatch was received to-day announcing that the export duty of 10 centimes heretofore charged on the leading exports of Brazil, including sugar, hides and other native products, has been reduced to 8 centum by the decree of the Emperor, which is now in full force.

Review of New York Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—At the first board this forenoon, the Stock market was quite unsettled and irregular, though the general tendency of prices was downward. In N. Y. Central a large business was done, the sales reaching nearly 20,000 shares—opening at 78¾, and selling high as 78½, closing at 78½—all cash; Pac Mail fell 4 ℘ cent selling as low as 70, closing at 71—cash; Reading fell to 40½; C. & T. fell ½; Ill. Cen. ½; Mich. Sou. to 6¼; C. & R. I. rose ½; M. S. gua. ½; Mich. Cen. ½; Va. 6s ½; Gal & Chi. ½; Mich. Sou. at second board fell to 38½. The last sale was 40, buyer 10. State stocks generally more active at rising prices. At Second Board there was very little done, only eight kinds of stocks being operated on, prices generally, however, were a shade better. Galena rose ½, New York Central ½, Pacific Mail 2, Missouri sixes ½. Reading fell ½, Chicago and Rock Island ½.

In money there is rather more ease to-day. The supply offering is larger, but rates remain steady at 7 to 8 per cent on call. Short and long date paper range from 7 to 9 per cent. In exchange there is scarcely any movement—109½ to 110 is now the rate, which is lower. Saturday's boat will take $500,000 in specie.

The British Government and the Nicaragua Fillibusters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6th.—The Times Washington correspondent says Lord Lyon, the British Plenipotentiary, had a protracted interview with Secretary Cass to-day in regard to the departure of the Nicaragua expedition. He announced the determination of his Government to protect Nicaragua by force against invasion. The right and propriety of this course is recognized by the Government of the United States, and therefore a telegraphic dispatch was at once expedited to the commander of the British squadron, directing him to land such force as may be required for the expulsion of the fillibusters, should they succeed in effecting a landing.

Episcopal Convention.

RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 6.—The House of clerical and lay delegates was chiefly engaged today in referring various amendments to the canons to the Committee on Canons.

A motion to hold the next triennial Convention at Chicago occasioned a long debate. A motion to substitute New York was lost. No final action was taken on the subject.

Dr. Binney, Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia, was formally introduced to the Convention.

The Committee on New Dioceses reported recommending the admission of the Diocese of Minnesota. Adjourned.

The House of Bishops of course sat with closed doors.

American Board of Foreign Missions.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—At the session of the American Board of Foreign Missions, Rev. Dr. Cheever submitted a memorial to be forwarded to the Senate and House of Representatives, asking that more vigorous measures be resorted to by our Government to cause the law of the land against the foreign slave trade to be vigorously enforced, the honor of the nation to be preserved, and the country saved from the disgrace of renewing a traffic held in abhorence by the civilized world. After a debate the memorial was referred to the business committee.

The Canada.

SACKVILLE, Oct. 5.—It is supposed that the steamer Canada, from Liverpool on the 24th ult. has arrived at Halifax. There is a desperate storm of wind and rain prevailing, and the horse express with the news, if the steamer has arrived, will not be due here before 9 or 10 o'clock to-morrow.

NEW BOOKS
THIS DAY PUBLISHED BY
LITTLE, BROWN & CO.,
LAW AND FOREIGN BOOKSELLERS,
No. 112 Washington street, Boston.

The Life and Times of James Madison,
BY HON. WILLIAM C. RIVES.
Vol. 1., 8vo. Cloth, $2 25.
[TO BE COMPLETED IN THREE OR FOUR VOLUMES.]
Mr. Madison's career was contemporary and closely identified with the War of the Revolution, the arduous labors of the old Congress, the completion of the articles of confederation, the formation and adoption of the Constitution of the United States, the political questions which arose under the administration of Washington, the struggle of parties which terminated in the election of Jefferson over Adams, and the complicated questions of foreign policy which led to the war of 1812,—a war commenced and terminated under his own administration. In passing under review these great scenes of our history, the writer has been enabled, by access to the papers of Mr. Madison and other original documents, to throw new light upon many debatable passages of the highest and most permanent interest in American annals.
Besides the career of Mr. Madison himself, of which no connected narrative has ever yet been given to the public, the works will embrace authentic and illustrative notices, founded chiefly on original and unpublished documents of the most distinguished of his contemporaries,—Washington, Jefferson, George Mason, Patrick Henry, Richard Henry Lee, Adams, Jay, Hamilton, King, and others. Whether the subject, the materials, or the dramatis personae, be considered, the work, in its design, would seem well fitted to supply yet remaining and important desiderata in our national history, on questions which must ever engage the deepest interest of the American people.

In representing truthfully the Shades and Peculiarities of Negro Life on the Plantation, and representing the musical capabilities of the more refined negroes of cities and villages, the universal accord has stamped the Campbell artists unapproachable and defying.

SAFETY FILM

Press & Tribune.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1859.

ST. LOUIS FAIR.

If the immense success of the late Fair at St. Louis does not stimulate the people of Chicago and the Northwest to the organization of an Agricultural Society, including in the scope of its operations six Northwestern States, and on a scale commensurate with the magnitude of the Agricultural and Mechanical interests of those States, we are mistaken in the enterprise of those who should be concerned therein. An Annual Exhibition here, which shall eclipse any other Fair, State or National, in all this country, is among the easy possibilities of the times; and we trust that the public-spirited gentlemen who took the matter in hand have not already grown weary of their effort. When shall the Society be organized, and where?

A NEW TERRITORY.

We are in receipt of information from the Cherokee Country, south of Kansas, which leads us to believe that the attempt to wring out of Congress a Territorial organization at the next session, has been abandoned in view of the political complexion of that body. It is known that the South has the almost unlimited control of the Cherokee Nation; and that John Ross, the Chief or President, is not only a slaveholder but a warm believer in the rightfulness and necessity of "the institution." His influence with his people is decisive; and he is understood to favor a surrender of the independent rights of the Nation in favor of a territorial condition at the earliest practicable moment. He is reputed to be wealthy; but with the greed which belongs to red men as well as white, is anxious for the increased value of his real-property which a large emigration would bring in its train; and again the hope of a Governorship under the Federal Government, with a reversionary interest in a seat in the United States Senate, is more alluring than the honors of his present place. It will be a curious thing to see the Democracy urging the amalgamation of races and the deterioration of the Anglo-American blood, by admitting these nasty Indians to all the rights of citizenship; but the red-skins believe in the divine origin and Christian necessity of human bondage; and that belief, like charity, covers a multitude of sins. We shall watch the progress of the intrigue for making, first, a new Slave Territory, and then a new Slave State, with no little interest. It is the presentation of a new phase in Democracy; and that, though now-a-days a matter of such frequency, is still worthy of study.

THE POOR OLD POPE.

Among the latest and apparently the most authentic rumors from the Vatican is one to the effect that His Holiness, Pius IX, has abandoned the project of reducing the rebellious provinces beyond the Appenines, and that he contemplates accepting the asylum offered him by Spain in the Balearic Isles of the Mediterranean, taking with him neither scrip nor staff nor two changes of raiment. Though this news is made plausible by the statement that the Emperor of the French has notified His Holiness of the speedy removal of the garrison afforded to the successor of St. Peter by that potentate during some ten years, we judge that the exile of the Sovereign Pontiff will take place whenever he is thrust out of Rome by his enraged subjects, and not a moment before. The history of the Popes does not, we believe, afford an instance of the voluntary cession of a hair's breadth of territory, (except in a notable case where the Head of the Church, unmarried of course, erected Parma into a Duchy in behalf of his own son,) or the relaxation of an inch of power, unless wrenched from the Pontifical sceptre by main strength. The case of the Papal States was aptly set forth by M. About, when he said that one hundred and thirty-six millions of Catholics had delegated to three millions of Italians the duty of boarding and lodging their spiritual chief, and that unless the cost and vexation of restoring him to his lodgings were incurred once every year, the one hundred and thirty-six millions must maintain a force near the Vatican sufficient to keep the three millions from laying violent hands on the anointed of the Lord. The time when it was possible for a Pope to create his own garrison and even to make head against foreign powers, is past and gone. Henceforth the ghostly weapons of cursing, excommunication and purgatory, constitute his armory, offensive and defensive. And since the three millions of Italians upon whom he has been imposed, in spite of priestcraft have grown too tough to feel the infliction of his shafts, but one path seems open for the head of the Catholic Church whenever the French bayonets are removed from the Eternal City—that one leading to the little island of Majorica, under the shadow of Spain. If the powers of Europe shall suffer the Italian people to follow the evident bent of their inclination in this regard, a blow will be given to the Roman Catholic Church not less telling than the Reformation of the sixteenth century. There can be no Catholic Church without a Pope, and no Pope who is not Pope of Rome.

What is the Necessity of a National Republican Convention?

CHICAGO, October 6th, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

What is the use of a National Republican Convention? For a candidate? No! For a Platform? We have one now that is satisfactory. As far as the candidate is concerned, any man of the proper faith can carry all the States that Fremont carried. The onus of the battle is the carrying of the four States, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Indiana and Illinois, which Fremont did not carry. Why should Massachusetts, Maine or Minnesota attempt to choose for them? They know their own necessities and can wisely select the man for the emergency. I propose that the choice be left to them; and that all talk about a National Convention be intermitted for four years. We want to win. Let us take the surest method of doing it. JEFFERSON.

We publish the above, not because the suggestions therein contained meet our approbation; but because it is the impulse of an earnest and far-seeing man. Our correspondent is right in so far as he fixes upon the four States named as the battle ground of the next campaign; but is he right in supposing that the great States of New York, Ohio and Massachusetts would be content with the secondary part which is allotted to them? We believe that in the selection of a candidate, the nominators, whoever they may be, should choose that man who is sure of the doubtful votes. The last campaign came to naught because that obvious caution was forgotten in the rush that was made by the New York politicians for Fremont. The infamous Administration now in power is the penalty that the country pays for the terrible mistake. We hope to see neither that mistake nor that Administration repeated!

NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR.

Bolton F. Strother, Esq., of this city, who is Mr. Buchanan's Collector of the Port, and Custodian of the public money, has been nominated by the Rock Island Argus as the National Democratic candidate for Governor. We do not see that the Chicago Herald seconds the motion. Between this date and the 8th of January, when the State Convention is to be held, the Herald may fall into line.

MAN KILLED.—On Tuesday night, a man was killed on the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad, about five miles from the former place. The front part of his head was entirely taken off. He had evidently been hunting, as two dogs were sitting near his body, although he had no gun. He was a well-dressed man, and it was supposed that he was either intoxicated, or had purposely laid his head upon the track. His name or whereabouts could not be ascertained.

—The Democrats of Newburyport, Mass. held a mass meeting on Saturday last for the purpose of electing delegates to a County Convention. There was a very large attendance. The meeting went into a trial of strength between the Administration and Douglas wings of the party. The result was the entire routing of the Douglas faction. At a similar meeting a short time previous, the Douglas party carried the day.

WISCONSIN POLITICS.

Bill Barstow Protests against Mr. Hobart.

Mr. W. A. Barstow, ex-Governor, and Mr. Alexander T. Gray, ex-Secretary of State, do jointly and severally protest, through the columns of the Janesville Gazette, against Mr. Harrison C. Hobart, the candidate of their own party for Governor of Wisconsin. The protest has the more significance when it is remembered that Barstow, though morally and politically bankrupt, owned the late Democratic State Convention, and that he himself procured the nomination of Hobart by that body. The protest is as follows:

Editors Gazette:—Not having at this time any Democratic organ here, we send you the following communication for publication, with the request that the Milwaukee News and such other papers as publish the speech of Mr. Hobart alluded to, will also give our protest a place in their columns.
W. A. BARSTOW,
A. T. GRAY.

To Hon. Harrison C. Hobart:

We have just read, in the Milwaukee News of the 2d instant, the report of a speech delivered by you at Horicon, on the 30th ultimo, in a discussion with the Republican candidate for Governor. Toward the conclusion of that speech, you asked Gov. Randall to say whether he intended on that occasion, as he had the previous evening at Oshkosh, to "review the acts of Barstow's administration," and upon Mr. R. replying in the affirmative, according to the report of your remarks, you proceeded to enter a cognovit, on behalf of the Democratic party, of all that was charged by its enemies against the Barstow administration, and even a little more. You speak of the report of the investigating committee as if it were conclusive, and had not been fully met by the reply of two of the officers of that administration, and fully refuted. You say "great wrongs were committed in the management of the school land office," and that "the Democrats who were in the Legislature were on that committee, and assisted in the exposure." Speaking for the Democratic party, you say "we neither indorsed the Bashford nor the Barstow corruptions," etc.

Now inasmuch as you are admitting all that Gov. Randall can possibly charge against Barstow's administration, would like to understand whether you know what you are talking of, and mean what you say. If you do, how is it that so intelligent a gentleman, and so watchful a politician as yourself, was the active champion of Barstow's re-nomination in 1855, and the President of the convention which accorded to him that honor? And how did it happen that you accepted the aid, and gladly, too, of the same Barstow towards your own nomination for the office of governor? No one ever heard a whisper from you that you entertained such sentiments—not a word of the sort have you ever before put upon record. And if it be your intention to promote your own success in this canvass by attacking a former Democratic State administration, had you not better think again, and see if you can make anything by such a course? We heartily desire the success of the Democratic ticket, but if that success is to be counted as a verdict of guilty against that administration and its friends, we shall have no occasion to rejoice, however it may be with you.

We do not intend to enter upon a fresh defence of that administration, but we take this way of recording our protest against your appearing before the people of Wisconsin and entering for us a plea of guilty. We have never acknowledged that we were so; the charges made against us we know to be false, nor were they in any degree established by the evidence trumped up to sustain them, whatever you may now think or may now say about them.

We have thought fit thus to notice your speech lest silence on our part might be construed as an admission of the truth of what you have chosen to admit for us.
W. A. BARSTOW,
A. T. GRAY.

JANESVILLE, Oct. 3d, 1859.

WHICH IS THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY?

Disagreements between Forney and Douglas.

The Philadelphia Press, in advising all Democrats to stand aloof from the ticket nominated by the Buchaneers, closes a long article thus:

We are told by some of the organs of the Administration that in a late speech of Judge Douglas at Pittsburg, he went out of his way to invoke the Democrats of Pennsylvania to stand by their organization, and that in saying this he intended to place upon record his wish that the State ticket nominated by the last Administration State Convention might be voted for by the State Rights Democracy of Pennsylvania. Judge Douglas has his own duties to perform, and we have ours. He stands with the organization, but also with the principles of the party in Illinois. Give us the principles, and we go for the organization; but when the soul of our party has fled, the party ceases to have any claims upon us; and when a minority, simply strong because they wield federal power for the moment, are enabled to make the organization paramount, and the faith of the Democratic party secondary, we should be wanting in self-respect, and be deserving of the contempt of all honest men if we did not resist and rebuke their treachery. When Judge Douglas passed through Philadelphia after his triumph in Illinois, he expressly stated that he sympathised with the revolt against tyranny in which we were then, as we are now, engaged; and we, who know the man, can understand that he would do the same thing under similar circumstances. He never would have supported an Administration ticket in Illinois, if nominated as the Administration ticket has been nominated in Pennsylvania—by the merest slaves of power, and placed upon a platform repudiating the sacred principles to which his whole life has been dedicated.

In his letter to Mr. Dorr, of Iowa, stating his position on the Presidential nomination, Judge Douglas expressly stated that he would accept no nomination unless the Democratic National Convention recognized the principles of which he is the representative. The logical, irresistible, and inevitable conclusion from this declaration is, that no Democrat can support a candidate who does not believe and avow Democratic doctrines. Such is the position of the State-Rights Democracy of Pennsylvania, neither more or less."

All this is equivalent to saying that Douglas is no Democrat.

A PAIR OF OPINIONS ON THE CALIFORNIA ELECTION.

[From Forney's Philadelphia Press.]

The reported triumph of the Administration in California, after an unexampled contest need surprise no one who has looked at the character of the struggle, and has even ordinarily estimated the immense amount of patronage wielded by the Federal Government on the shores of the Pacific. The inducements offered for the support of any Administration to the politicians in that quarter are too tempting to be resisted, and we are not astonished that the desperate men who have control of the disbursement of millions of the public treasury annually, have proved too strong for the people. The Republicans voted their own State ticket apart from the State Rights Democracy, who supported theirs, thus increasing the majority of the Administration Governor and State officers. It is reported that McKibbin and Baker have been elected to Congress—the one a State Rights Democrat, the other a Republican—which we trust may prove to be a fact, although we have no good grounds to hope for it. Our friends in California have made a bold, bitter, and thorough contest, and, although defeated, may hold up their heads in the consciousness that they have fallen alone in the cause of justice and their country.

[From the Chicago Times.]

We rejoice that Mr. Latham has been elected, and that his majority is so emphatic. He was the nominee of the regular organization of the party, and as such was entitled to the support of all Democrats professing to belong to the party and recognizing its obligations. Mr. Latham is a man of talents, of high personal character, and, therefore, no Democrat could object to voting for him as the nominee of the party. Those who were dissatisfied with his nomination, or with the principles declared by the convention which nominated him, acted unwisely and unjustly in placing another candidate in the field. We do not believe that Democrats are bound to vote for and support a candidate of base personal character, and one incompetent to perform the duties of the office for which he may be nominated, simply because he may, by some fraud, obtain the nomination; because such a requirement would amount to a want of self respect, and be an inducement for the practice of fraud by men who could obtain nominations in no other manner. But when candidates of good personal standing and fully competent, if elected, to perform the duties of the office which they seek, are put in nomination by the regular organization of the party, then it is the duty of all men who cherish the principles of the Democratic party to support such nominees.

AN ECHO AT SPRINGFIELD.

[From the Illinois State Journal.]

The Democratic ratification meeting in this city on last Saturday, we understand, was composed of many choice spirits from both wings of the party, each party anxious to appropriate McClernand as its own particular candidate. They were all willing to ratify, but A. McWilliams, Esq., wanted the meeting to take fair and square ground in favor of the nominee of the Charleston Convention, whoever he might be, and offered a resolution to this end. It was a perfect bombshell in their ranks, and those who are setting the triggers for Douglas, dropped it 'like a hot potatoe.' The chairman of the meeting refused to entertain it, and the Douglasites yell'd themselves hoarse against it. But Mr. McWilliams, finding that he had backers, refused to be gagged, and insisted that his resolution was not only appropriate, but well timed. But did the Douglasites pass it? 'Not a bit of it.' They coolly referred it to a Select Committee, in whose pockets it will never again be heard from. This is the first time in the history of the Democratic party of Illinois, that a resolution to abide by the nomination of the National Democratic Convention ever hung fire or failed of unanimous endorsement. The Democratic masses need not be at any loss to understand its significance. The Douglas leaders are for the Charleston Convention if it nominates Douglas, and against if it don't. McClernand was present at the meeting and made a speech 'ratifying' on his own hook his nomination; but he did not enlighten anybody much as to his views of Mr. McWilliams' resolution; and the Register of yesterday does not even notice it—an accident, of course.

The Aurora Borealis and Earthquakes.

An eruption of Mount Hood, in Oregon, commenced last month, as near as can be ascertained, at about the same time of the great aurora, which attracted so much attention here. This event is considered good evidence that these phenomena are connected and electrical. The Oregonian gives the following account of the eruption:

"On Wednesday last, the atmosphere suddenly became exceedingly hot about mid-day. In the afternoon the heavens presented a singular appearance—dark, silvery, condensed clouds hung over the top of Mount Hood. That day several persons watched the appearance of Mount Hood until evening. An occasional flash of fire could be distinctly seen rolling up. On Thursday night, the fire was plainly seen by every one whose attention could be drawn to the subject. Yesterday the mountain was closely examined by those who have recently returned from a visit to the summit, when, by the naked eye or glass, it was seen that a large mass of the northwest side had disappeared, and the immense quantity of the snow which, two weeks since, covered the south side, had also disappeared. The dense clouds of steam and smoke constantly rising over and far above its summit, together with the entire change in its appearance heretofore, convince us that Mount Hood is now in a state of eruption, which has broken out within a few days."

FROM MINNESOTA.

Progress of the Campaign.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

ST. ANTHONY, October 3, 1859.

One week from to-morrow (Tuesday) decides our political fate—decides whether our reckless, unscrupulous, Moccasin State Administration, and our debauched, corrupt, despotic National Administration, shall be indorsed by the people of this tax-ridden Commonwealth, or whether a new policy is to be inaugurated, which shall foreshadow the certain revolution of 1860. And, standing as far as I am able to do, aloof from partizan wranglings, and taking an outside view of the pending contest, I tell you that things never looked more favorable in any State for an overwhelming victory of the cause of Free Labor and Free Soil.

Republicans are everywhere confident, vigilant and hopeful; the Democrats are everywhere indifferent, dispirited and dumb. The State policy proposed by the respective parties forms to us one of the most vital issues of the campaign, and it is this largely which is gathering hundreds and hundreds of hitherto Democrats, in all portions of the State, around the Republican standard. The miscalled Democratic platform, as you will have seen, proposes Taxation (a severe word to the people of our State, just now), to pay the principal and the interest on the Railroad bonds ($2,500,000), to make them par in the pockets of the holders, while permitting the bankrupt and swindling companies to retain all their franchises, but making no provision for the further building of the roads. (The $2,500,000 have been delivered to the companies, per Loan amendment, for some 250 miles of cheap sandbanks—called grades—which two spring showers would reduce to the level of the prairie! This is the extent of our system of Railroads.)

The Republicans oppose Repudiation, but also oppose present taxation—but contemplate a complete forfeiture of all the charters of the "Forty Thieves" to the State, in the failure to pay their semi-annual interest. They also insist that the "honest indebtedness" of the State is exactly equivalent to the consideration rendered by the companies, and the bribed landlords, resigning Directors and Washington harlots who happen to hold our bonds will certainly become "the victims of misplaced confidence."

This is a fight between the tax-payers and the railroad swindlers, and since the present campaign begun, I think thousands of Democrats might be counted, who have been converted to the true faith. Hundreds more, who have always stood in the front rank, fighting the battles of that party, now declare with melancholy faces and despairing accents, that they have determined to "let the election go 'by default' this year." The State is being most vigorously canvassed by the Republicans, while their foes are feeble and equivocating, and their meetings without a spark of enthusiasm and as cold as Greenland. Grow, Colfax, and Bingham have done a good work here; so have Hale and Blair—a work which will tell mightily upon the election at hand, and which will never be forgotten by their auditors.

Blair addressed a very large audience in this city on Saturday evening, and his speech was one of the boldest and most admirable anti-slavery efforts we have ever heard. His expose of the doughfaceism and demagogism of the Infinitesimal Giant was complete and triumphant, and brought down the house with peals on peals of mingled laughter and applause. At the close, a gentleman in the audience rose and said that it "had been charged by the Hunker press that Frank Blair himself held slaves," and if he would not consider it an impertinence, the audience would like to be enlightened. Mr. Blair replied that he was embarrassed to find that the Democracy would not permit him to "form and regulate his own domestic institutions in his own way, subject to the Constitution of the United States." [Laughter.] But while it was painful to him to be called up on matters so entirely personal to himself, there was nothing in that record which he wished to conceal. [Cheers.] He said he inherited slaves from a kind and merciful father, that he had purchased slaves himself, but only to prevent the separation of families, and ultimately to free them. [Great applause.] That he had emancipated more slaves than he now owned,—[cheers,] and that he now only owned such as he was forbidden to emancipate by the laws of Missouri, they being either too old or too young to take care of themselves. (Here the audience rose and gave him three hearty cheers.) He said that for long years he had fought the Slave Power upon its own ground, carrying his life upon his sleeve for any ruffian to pluck off; that all his powers were consecrated to the emancipation of his native South from the chains of degradation that bore her down, and that he expected to live to see Missouri Free Soil, the peaceful and prosperous abode of Free Men. His speech was a most masterly one, and was received with the utmost enthusiasm.

The Minnesota State and Hennepin County Fair will commence at Minneapolis (across the river) on Wednesday. Large preparations have been made, and the exhibition will doubtless be a worthy one.

"A grand Mass Meeting" of the Republicans was held at St. Anthony on Tuesday last; also, on the same day, a "grand Mass Meeting" of the Democracy, on an island in the river opposite. The first numbered 5,000 at the very least; the last 500 at the very most—relative enthusiasm and effect, do., do. And this is an earnest of the whole feeling throughout the State. From every quarter comes words of encouragement; we have a sharp eye on "Cass, Pembina and Todd" this time; vigilant watchmen are at every outpost; and on the 11th of October, Messrs. Editors, just draw on us for two Congressmen, a Senator, ten majority in the Legislature, and 4,000 majority in the State, and your draft shall be honored. Be assured that on Wednesday, the 12th, Republican Minnesota will send greeting to Republican Illinois—to all the unbroken brotherhood of Republican States! VIGIL.

The Distressing Casualty at St. Charles—Correction.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

ST. CHARLES, October 5th, 1859.

Noticing in your paper of yesterday the relation of the sad and destressing casualty by fire in this place, I thought I would write you stating the circumstances as they were, more particularly in regard to Mr. John R. Baker, the gentleman who so nobly rescued our dear child from being actually consumed. The circumstances attending the accident were these: The children in returning from church about an hour in advance of their parents, found a piece of roll brimstone on the sidewalk, and having once seen the pretty flame from burning sulphur, they found a match and lighted the brimstone. By some means the dresses of both the older children, one nearly seven the other five, were ignited, the younger at the instigation of the older (who endeavored by every means to extinguish the fire on herself) succeeded in stripping off her dress, it being at the time unfastened, and was thus mercifully spared to us. As soon as the older one began to feel the agony of the flames to her face and neck, she started to run to Mr. Baker's house, seeing him out of doors, and had proceeded as far as a stack of straw which is immediately between our houses, when becoming exhausted or tripping her foot, she fell on the straw. Mr. Baker hearing her screams, rushed to the spot and drew her from the burning straw and succeeded in stripping off her clothes, but in so doing, dreadfully burnt his hands, but not as your informant had it, so much as to render amputation necessary. He may perhaps loose the use of the third and forth fingers of his right hand, but beyond this, we hope by careful nursing he will recover. The poor child lingered for about six hours, for the most of the time comparatively easy, retaining her reason almost to the last, and conversing much with us, which great source of comfort must have been denied us had it not been for the noble exertions of our friend Mr. Baker, as she must have been in a few minutes entirely consumed in the burning straw.

Truly yours, F. N. NIND.

A Snake Story.

A singular instance of the tenacity with which a snake clings to life was told us this morning, as having occurred two weeks since, on the farm of Mr. Kimble, on the Eastern Extension road, four miles west of Washington. Mr. Kimble's man, while working in the field with a spade, thought he heard a snake passing near in the high weeds. He set down the spade at random, and, as it happened, fair upon the snake, cutting him clean in two. In looking, the man could find but one half, but on further search discovered that the other had entered a hole near by. Supposing the snake to have been an unusually large one, and that he had only nipped off the tail; after chopping it into fragments, he laid it on the fence and thought no more of it. The piece he had cut off was about eighteen inches long. Nearly a week subsequent, while working near the same place, he was surprised to discover the other part of his snakeship, which consisted of the head and about six inches of the body. It was still alive, and with the exception of making pretty slow time, seemed to be doing as well as ever. This snake had actually lived and traveled about for nearly a week, having lost three fourths of its former self, and there is no telling whether he would not have acquired a good old age, but that his first persecutor denied him that pleasure.—Peoria Union.

A new Masonic Statue of Washington.

Gen. Washington was a member of the Masonic Lodge at Fredericksburg, Va., and was initiated November 3, 1759. The fact is interesting to Masons, as well as to the old lodge at Fredericksburg. It has been deemed proper to procure a statue of Washington, by Powers. The statue arrived at New York from Leghorn a few days since. It is the property of the Fredericksburg Lodge, and has been paid for by the voluntary contribution of the Masonic order generally. It cost $5,000, and is somewhat larger than life. It is still in charge of the Custom House, but will be exhibited in a few days to the public. The "First President" is dressed in the regalia of his Masonic office. It was proposed also to erect a building at Fredericksburg suitable for the statue, and to inaugurate it with appropriate ceremonies on the 3d of November.—Virginia Paper.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

[BY THE OVERLAND MAIL.]

THE ELECTION.

The San Francisco Herald of the 12th says:

The counties heard from so far, give returns, which, taken as an index, leave no doubt as to the success of the entire Democratic ticket, Congressmen and all. The returns foot up as follows:

For Latham, 21,286; for Currey, 19 111; and for Stanford 4,984. It will be seen that Latham leads Currey 9,175 votes, and Stanford 16,302 votes, beating both combined 4,191 votes. Curley leads Stanford 7,127 votes.

The figures for the Congressional candidates are very close. Burch has 18,852; Scott 18,875; McKibben 18,875; and Baker 18,875—the three last named having exactly the same number of votes, and each beating Burch 23 votes. For State Printer, Botts counts 17,116; O'Meara 17,783, being 667 ahead of Botts. But it must be remembered that O'Meara's vote in this city was 2,643 ahead of Botts, and that Sacramento County, thus far, has given him ad additional majority of 700 votes. This majority of 3,343 has been reduced to 667, and the prospects are that Mr. Botts will come out with a handsome majority. Messrs. McKibben and Baker went out of this city with about three thousand majority, but a glance at the figures above given will show that Messrs. Burch and Scott have overtaken them already. The prospects of Messrs. McKibben and Baker are, therefore, not very flattering. The total vote for Governor, so far, is 38,381.

THE BRODERICK DUEL.

The San Francisco Bulletin of the 10th has the following reference to this affair:

Our surmises yesterday prove to have been correct. Judge Terry did send a note to Mr. Broderick, inviting him to a hostile meeting, in consequence of the disparaging remarks concerning himself made by the Senator at the table of the International Hotel, in June last. We learn that the parties were up during all of last night negotiating, but whether their efforts were addressed to the object of an amicable settlement of the difficulty, or to the arrangement of the preliminaries and terms of the fight, cannot be known at present, except to the immediate parties. We are informed, however, on apparently good authority, (and we believe the statement to be true), that the parties left the city this morning for the field—that Leonidas Haskell and Joseph C. McKibben officiate as seconds of Mr. Broderick, and that Calhoun Benham and Dr. Aylett, of Stockton, act for Judge Terry. The rumor is, that they have selected some point in San Mateo County as the scene of the conflict.

The following dispatch, which was telegraphed to Gilroy, (Cal.) from San Francisco, reports that an interference of the police prevented a duel between these parties.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12—12 M.

There has been intense excitement for the last three days, on account of a contemplated duel between Senator Broderick and Judge Terry, of the Supreme Court, the latter being the challenging party. The fight was to take place at six o'clock this morning, in San Mateo County, and the parties proceeded to the field, but were arrested by the police, before doing any damage. This arrests the matter for the present, but it is believed that there are still one or two affairs of honor contemplated, involving the same parties or their friends, the cause being the violent personalities of the past political campaign.

LATER.

But as an offset to this report, we give the following contents of a way-bill received through the Post Office last night by the mail from California:

SANTA CLARA, (Cal.) Sept. 12, 1859.

Duel this morning between Hon. D. C. Broderick and Judge Terry of the Supreme Bench. Broderick shot Terry in the throat—wound supposed fatal. H. D. COBB, P. M.

We may mention that Judge Terry emigrated to California from Kentucky, of which State he was a native, having been born in Christian County. It will be recollected that his course in California drew down upon him the denunciations of the San Francisco Vigilance Committee; and that he made a narrow escape with his life out of their hands.

From the San Francisco Times.

It was reported or rumored in San Diego that several Americans had been seized and thrown into prison in Lower California, among whom was Rufus K. Porter, Esq., well known in this city. He was or several years connected with the Post Office here. For some two years he has been a resident of San Rosario, Lower California, from which place he has written the several letters during the past few months.

The reason given for the seizure is that they had, in common with the adherents of the Liberal party, given offence to the Government faction. What gives more appearance of truth to this painful rumor is the fact that Mrs. Porter, who had some important legal matters to attend to in San Diego, and had been expected there for some time, had not arrived, notwithstanding her presence was required several days previous to the sailing of the steamer. Rumors always grow as they travel, and so the report of the imprisonment of Mr. Porter and others had changed to another, that they had already been executed. We hope the first rumor may exceed the truth, although the savage character of the new Commandante, Mendoza, who supersedes General Castro, gives room for the most fatal anticipations.

DEPARTURE OF MR. DANA.—Richard H. Dana, Esq., whose visit to this State has excited considerable interest, not on account of his legal and literary eminence, but from the fact that he was here twenty one years ago, when but one house stood where San Francisco is now situated, sails to-day in the ship Mastiff for China via Honolulu. It is his intention to make the tour of India, Palestine and Europe, and return to Boston, his native city, next year. Good luck and pleasant journeying go with him.—Times of 10th.

INDIAN OUTRAGES.

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 10—9 P. M.

PITT RIVER, Sept. 10.—Mr. McElroy, recently wounded by Indians, died on Wednesday. He leaves a wife and four children. A party from Shingletown, on their way to join the Pitt River Rangers, killed four Indians and took a rifle from them. On Thursday a deserter from Fort Crooks, with two other white men, entered Mr. Penton's house, near Lockheart's Ferry, tied Mr. Penton and his wife, and robbed them of $180. The renegades said they were going to raise two hundred warriors and clean out the valley.

LATER FROM PIKE'S PEAK.

Frequent Disturbances of the Public Peace—The Election—Political—Enterprise of a Pittsburg Steamboatman—Indians Returning from Hunting Expeditions—From the Mountains.

[Correspondence of the Leavenworth Times.]

DENVER CITY, Sept. 22, 1859.

Fights, rows, brawls, shooting and stabbing affrays are the order of the day. The frequency of bloody collisions on the other side of the Creek, where most of the gambling saloons are located, has become fearful. A crisis is evidently approaching, in consequence of the intolerable boldness with which law and order are at present defied in that quarter. The Vigilance Committee will doubtless step in before long, and submit the foul atmosphere of that locality to a thorough purification. If the citizens of Auraria are desirous of saving the good reputation of their town, let them be aroused from their present indifference, and sweep the Augean stables without delay.

The election returns are now complete. A majority of nearly three thousand is figured up against the Constitution, and that piece of folly is thus finally and fortunately disposed of. A second Oxford has loomed up in this region. A mystic locality by the name of Fountain City has returned nearly eleven hundred voters. The true number of the votes then and there called would probably be obtained by cutting off two figures to the right.

A somewhat lively business has been done of late in the line of politics. Quite a number of candidates for the Delegateship to Congress have made their appearance. Among these, Gen. Larimer and B. D. Williams, late Superintendent of Express Company, figure prominently. A sort of nominating Convention was held yesterday at Golden City, the result of which has, however, thus far, failed to transpire. Denver City is not represented in it. It is more than probable that most of the candidates now announced will run independently of the action of any conventional body, and I should not be surprised if half a dozen individuals, claiming to represent the people of the gold region, should appear in Washington city in December next, and claim admission. The election of a Delegate itself is to come off on the first Monday in October. Party issues have thus far been raised between the several aspirants to the honor and, perhaps, profits of a Delegateship. The only difference of opinion between them seems to consist in the higher or lower degree of enthusiasm they display with regard to the future of this country.

On the 14th inst., Mr. John Steiner, of Westmoreland County, Pa., an old steamboat Captain, (the same person whom I mentioned in my last as one of the lucky miners, he having realized about $5,000 worth of gold in less than eleven weeks,) departed down the South Platte in a sort of flat-bottomed scow, for the purpose of taking soundings, &c., with the view of running a light draught steam boat up to this point or the lower crossing. Mr. Steiner is full of confidence in his ability to do so.

A large band of Araphoes returned the latter part of last week from an extensive and protracted hunting expedition into the buffalo country. They do not appear to have realized much in the way of meat, hides, furs, etc., during their long absence. "Left Hand" and "Little Horse," their two chiefs, contend that a most fatal disease is raging among the buffaloes, which covers the plains with tens of thousands of carcasses, and is so contagious that it is even dangerous to eat the meat of those that were killed by their people. In consequence of this fatality, and the failure—at least the two chiefs assert—to obtain their usual annual presents at the hands of their agent, (Col. Bent, from the Arkansas,) great destitution prevails among the red-skins, which forced them to appeal to the charitable disposition of their white friends. A "talk" was held with the principal warriors of the band by the leading citizens of Denver on the subject, which resulted in the raising of a subscription for the benefit of the "poor Indians." On Sunday morning, nearly a hundred dollars' worth of provisions were distributed among and received by them with visible delight.

Mr. Frank Kershaw returned on Sunday morning last, from the head waters of the Blue River, a tributary of the Colorado of the West, after an absence of nearly a month. He says that over five hundred miners are at work in that vicinity, turning the stream, panning, etc. He has found prospects as high as 10c to $1.60 to the pan. He thinks that next year as much mining will be done on the other side the range, as on this side. The miners had built a large and strong fort, to protect their persons and property from the Utahs. Mr. Kershaw has already taken the back track for the new diggings

How the Amalgamation Expect to Organize the next House.

The following letter speaks for itself. It was addressed to N. G. Taylor, late an anti-Democratic candidate for Congress in Tennessee. As will be seen, it was written by W. G. Brownlow, and indited from Healing Springs:

HEALING SPRINGS, Bath County, Va., August 26, 1859.

BROTHER TAYLOR: Your favor of the 20th instant was forwarded to me from Knoxville, and received to-day. I think your chances for the Clerkship are very good; at least fair enough to justify an effort on your part to obtain the position.

If Etheridge were elected Speaker—of which I think there is not much prospect—it would only militate against you in this respect—as one of the three great offices conferred by the House, Clerk, Speaker and Printer, would be given to a Tennessean, they would consider it sufficient patronage for one State. The Democracy and the Southern Opposition and the Republicans can do it. It will, therefore, require an agreement between them, and a division of the offices. Some of our Southern men will feel reluctant to act with them. I would not, for differing with them and denouncing their Abolitionism, I would regard the division of offices as a business transaction. No one party in the House can elect without the Southern Opposition vote, as they hold the balance of power—therefore, to elect at all, the Opposition must vote with one of the parties.

Before God, I honestly believe the Democratic party, both North and South, to be soulless, truthless, treacherous, corrupt and unprincipled, and ready at all times, for the sake of office and plunder, to sacrifice their principles and their party, their country, and their God, if it were possible. Believing the Republicans to be no worse than this, I would not hesitate to act with them in a matter of business.

If Underwood is a candidate—and I had not dreamed of it before I received your letter—he will be a dangerous competitor; I know him well; he occupies the same friendly and conservative relation to the Republicans that you do, and having served a long time in Congress, he will have the advantage of an extensive acquaintance. But the way to manage that thing is this: Let the Clerkship be given to the Southern Opposition, and then let the Southern Opposition delegation meet and agree on their man. This would give you the nomination. You would have Tennessee and North Carolina to start upon, and these twelve votes would save you. Vance, Leech and Gilmer would carry the North Carolina delegates for you. Our seven would all go it for you with a hearty good will.

But for my bad health, and the dreadful climate of the District of Columbia, I would go with you to Washington and help you out. I know Leech, Gilmer and Vance well, and some of the Marylanders. All I can do by writing letters, I will certainly do. I will propose you editorially next week, as I write my editorials and send them home by mail.

Let your friends urge your claims on the Republicans, on the ground that you were slain by Democracy for your course on Kansas. The inclosed document I cut from the Mobile Mercury, a Whig paper. Yours, &c.,

W. G. BROWNLOW.

POLITICAL.

ORGANIZING THE HOUSE.—The Richmond Whig concludes an article on the organization of the next House of Representatives as follows:

"It is to be hoped, therefore, that the Opposition, North and South, will unite in the nomination and election of proper officers for the next House of Representatives, and proceed to the performance of their public duties without delay. Under existing circumstances, neither we nor any considerable portion of the Southern people care the snap of a finger whether the Speaker and other officers of the next House of Representatives are elected from the ranks of the Northern or the Southern Opposition.

Let no Southern Opposition member, therefore, hesitate a moment about co-operating with the Northern Opposition in the organization of the next House of Representatives."

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Washington, says:

In political circles, the organization of the next House continues to be a fruitful topic of speculation. The Democrats, of course, have abandoned all hope of attaining the Speakership, but some of the old stagers, such as Phelps, Cochrane or Bocock, will consent to lead the forlorn hope. Forney is working quietly to bring about a coalition that will give him the Clerkship. The Republicans will, undoubtedly, claim the Speakership, and if wanting in a clear majority, will have strength, finally, to carry their point.

All the talk about Etheridge is a flam. The best informed people here say he does not aspire to the position.

Davis, of Maryland, has been suggested, and his chances, supposing a Southern Opposition man to be fixed upon as a compromise, appears to be the best, as the Republicans feel that he sympathizes closely with them, and has not a strong slaveholding constituency to dread. His election, however, is not yet assumed, as John P. Kennedy has been spoken of as his opponent, which would in the present state of affairs in Baltimore, concentrate upon him the support of the Democrats and Old Line Whigs, who have become alarmed at the extreme measures resorted to by the American party to preserve its ascendancy there. Davis would undoubtedly give the Republicans the control of the best committees, which is the particular thing they desire. The probability is that the struggle for the Speakership will be protracted as that which preceded the election of Winthrop, and be determined ultimately by a resort to the plurality rule.

—The New York Mercury says there is a letter in town from Col. Fremont, in which that gentleman states that in consideration of several existing circumstances, he is not, and will not be a candidate for the Presidency in 1860.

—The New Orleans Crescent's New York correspondent writes to that paper as follows:

"Of course, you have read the elaborate reply to the Douglas Harper Manifesto, which appeared in The Constitution. That reply was not written by Judge Black. It was concocted by Mr. Buchanan, aided by Mr. Bennett of the Herald. Read it carefully, and you will see Mr. Bennett's style sticking out all through it. I have it from pretty good authority that Mr. Buchanan, during Mr. Bennett's sojourn with him at the Soldier's Home, tendered him the mission to France. Mr. Mason will return this winter, and as soon as the Senate adjourns, Mr. Bennett will be appointed, and his rejection will not happen until the session of 1860 and 1861. So that he will have a year tayhow. You may rely upon this."

—The Boston Courier, the organ of the Old Whigs, and which has been lingering on the borders of pro-slavery Democracy for more than a year past, finally accepts the extreme Southern Democratic doctrine that the Constitution carries slavery into the Territories and protects it there.

—It is said that Gen. Harney's real object, in his operations on the Pacific, is political popularity, with the idea of using the same at the Charleston Convention, after the manner of Pierce and others.

—The friends of Douglas, it is said, mean to make a rally in Indiana in behalf of their favorite, previous to the State Convention, to be held on the 11th of January. The Indianapolis Atlas says it is all in vain. The cards were all stocked long since. The Delegates from Indiana to Charleston will not be for Douglas.

MODEL REPORT OF A POLITICAL MASS MEETING.—The following is suggested, as a model report of the proceedings of a mass meeting held during the "heated term" of politics, answering without alteration, for the performances of any party. We do not propose to patent it, but give it free publicity, in the hope that it may answer a good purpose in saving reporters unproductive labor:

The enthusiastic and multitudinous citizens of the ———— ————, held a meeting last night in the ————. The crowd was addressed by a number of gentlemen of minor abilities and inferior consideration, on inconsequential topics, in indifferent language and an unprofitable manner. An adjournment was effected, with thirteen cheers for the whole ticket!!

Fiendish Outrage.

Mr. Blennerhassett, late editor of the Pinckneyville Gazette, informs us of an outrage perpetrated on Friday last at Tamaroa, which admonishes the Ethiopian race, that they have no rights in this land of liberty which Democracy is bound to respect.

A negro who lives at Jamestown, on the Great Western Railroad, had been for several days in the vicinity of Tamaroa, seeking for work. Assuming that he might possibly be a fugitive, and that $100 could be realized by taking him to St. Louis, his capture was resolved upon. Happening at the station on Friday, he was seized by a mob, who first attempted to thrust him into a cellar. During a struggle with his assailants, he was knocked down by a blow given with the butt of a whip, which struck him just below the eye; and while helpless and insensible, he was bound, and a party was detailed to take him to St. Louis. The conspirators, however, failed in their aims, D. G. Root, Esq., an Attorney at Law, and one of the largest agriculturalists in that vicinity, learning of the proceedings, hastened to Centralia, where he took out a writ of habeas corpus; and when the train arrived he procured the release of the captive, and had his captors who were with him arrested. The lovers of justice and humanity will reverence the prompt and efficient services of Mr. Root in this emergency; and a higher assurance that, "inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my little ones, ye have done it unto me," awaits him.

Judging the character of the Courts in the vicinity of Tamoroa by the conduct of those who took part in this outrage, there is small hope that the ruffians arrested, and their barbarian allies, will be suitably punished. So far as we have learned, this shameful proceeding was monopolized by the Democracy, and such demonstrations ought to satisfy the South that their interests in Southern Illinois are sufficiently guarded without recourse to the inhuman provisions of the Fugitive Slave Law.—Urbana Union.

Steam Boiler Explosion.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 6.—On Saturday last the boiler in the steam flouring mill of Sprowle, Turner & Co., at Hamilton, Hancock Co., exploded with terrible effect. The walls of the engine house were blown out, and Mr. Turner, one of the proprietors, was badly scalded and otherwise injured, though not fatally.

Suicide.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Chas. M. Scupp, a very wealthy leather dealer, committed suicide by shooting himself this morning.

Bishop Onderdonk.

The vote of the Episcopal Convention of New York, by which it is recommended to the House of Bishops, now in session at Richmond, Va., that Bishop Onderdonk be restored to his Episcopal functions, was ayes 222 (147 clergy and 75 laity) to 65 nays, (19 clergy and 46 laity.) This resolution was passed in the face of an earnest remonstrance from provisional Bishop Potter, who warned the Convention that it would create a worse state of affairs in the diocese than had ever before been experienced in the history of the Church. The resolution which was finally passed is as follows:

Resolved, That the remission of the sentence of the Right Rev. Bishop Onderdonk would be acceptable to this Convention, upon the condition that the restrictions upon the exercise of Episcopal power and offices within the diocese, set forth in his letter to the Right Rev. Bishop Potter, laid before the Convention, be annexed to the same, or such restrictions relative to the exercise of such powers as the House of Bishops may deem fit.

The letter alluded to in the resolution is a draft to be signed by Bishop Onderdonk after he shall be restored by the Bishops, and assigns to Bishop Potter, as assistant Bishop, all the administrative duties of Bishop of the Diocese, subject to such regulations as the two may agree upon. The authority in this case would remain substantially with Bishop Onderdonk, and Bishop Potter would act under his direction. That portion of Bishop Onderdonk's petition to the House of Bishops which is interpreted as a confession, is as follows:

"In the excitement of feeling consequent on my trial and sentence, it was natural that much should be said on both sides that in the more dispassionate moments of calm Christian judgment would afterwards be regretted and disclaimed. You will, however, brethren, permit me to say that deeply aggrieved as I felt at the time, by a sentence which I thought to be unduly severe, I have no recollection of having endeavored to justify my own view by attributing to my brethren unworthy motives. If the feelings of any of them have been hurt by the supposition that I had in any way done them injustice, I sincerely regret it, and hope that I may be pardoned for any expressions which may have been supposed to bear such a construction. I censure them not for upholding, as they believed, the honor of the church by the administration of discipline when they conscientiously believed it was deserved. I should very little deserve, brethren, what I solicit at your hands, if I were ready at once to acknowledge all the crimes that have been imputed to me by my enemies, and to profess penitence for that of which I am really not guilty. I cannot consent to purchase restoration at the price of falsehood and hypocrisy. And yet, I presume not to say that I am entirely faultless and have deserved no censure. I am not exempt from human infirmity, and, in the calmer reflections to which the lapse of time has contributed, I acknowledge that I cannot but believe parts of my conduct to have betrayed indiscretion, and that my demeanor must, in some instances, have been calculated to produce impressions injurious alike to the church and myself, however such effect may have been unintended and unperceived on my part. I can say that I cannot but believe this, because some of my fellow Christians, and, among them, some of yourselves, brethren, felt bound to this extent to condemn me. I beg you, however, to believe me, when I most solemnly declare that, in this matter, I was not the slave of deliberate impurity of intention."

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM
EVER
Worn by Kings or Emperors.
What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.
Because it is the ornament God Himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, harsh and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:
NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.
DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir: Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.
I am, dear sir, yours truly, S. THALBERG.
"Drych a'r Gwyliedydd,"
Welsh Newspaper office, 13 Nassau-st., April 12, 1858.
PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir: Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.
NEW YORK, July 25, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD:—With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative, as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KILBY.
O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 312 Broadway, New York, (in the great New York Wire Railing Establishment,) and 114 Market St., St. Louis, Mo.

TO THE BE-DRUGGED AND
Poisoned Citizens of Chicago.
You are overrun with a deluge of the vilest compounds in the form of "ALCOHOLIC DRINKS"
That ever emanated from that pest of society, the Liquor Mixer.
They are sold to you as a luxury, or they are dispensed to you as a medicine, and in either case the effect is the same.
There is but one way to escape, and that is to use as a luxury or a medicine, a safe and reliable stimulant, sold under stamp and seal, which renders it certain that it has not been tampered with. Such an art
Charles' London Cordial Gin,
Which is distilled under [illegible] of the British Government, is delicately flavored (unlike any other Gin) with some of the most valuable restoratives of the
VEGETABLE KINGDOM,
And is by far the most healthy beverage extant.
The most eminent physicians of Europe and America, not only recommend its use by the hale and hearty, but prescribe it as a medicine where a stimulant is required.
The female sex will find it not only a pleasant
CORDIAL,
But a certain relief in sufferings of a periodical character.
Analytical chemists of all ranks pronounce it perfectly pure, and its restorative merits incomparable.
Sold only in quart and pint bottles by all Druggists, Grocers, &c.

LOTS FOR SALE AT LAKE FOREST ILLINOIS.
The lots belonging to LIND UNIVERSITY, and now offered for sale present favorable inducements to persons wishing to enjoy the pleasures of country life within an hours ride of the City of Chicago.
They are located at Lake Forest on the west bank of Lake Michigan, elevated one hundred feet above the level of the Lake, about twenty-six miles north from Chicago, on both sides of the Chicago and Milwaukee Railroads, abound in mineral and other springs and natural beauties, and in the opinion of our best physicians the advantages for a healthful retreat and residence are not to be exceeded by any on the sea shore or in the Western country.
A fine Academy building (the preparatory department of Lind University) has been erected the past season, and is now in successful operation in charge of S. F. Miller, A. M.
A new Passenger Depot, a Store and more than a dozen dwellings have been erected within the past year.
In addition to the regular through trains an accommodation train taking passengers on commutation tickets a half the regular fare, leaves Chicago every evening and returns every morning thus affording business men an opportunity to spend the day in the city and be with their families at night.
A good hotel has been opened and in successful operation for more than a year past.
The Lake Forest Association have also a few lots, mostly for farming purposes, lying near the town, containing from three to ten acres each, which will be sold at reasonable prices, and on usual terms.
The subscriber has within the past year sold over twelve thousand dollars worth of the lands belonging to the University and Association, and proposes to sell a few more lots to persons who wish them for immediate improvement and cultivation.
For further particulars apply to Peter Page, No. 11 Washington street, or address him through the Post Office. Box 298, Chicago, Illinois.

PERSONAL.

Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, who is still in Vermont, was so unwell last week as to be compelled to forego an appointment to lecture at St. Albans. He has for some years past been subject to sudden attacks, which his physicians suppose to be atrophy of the heart.

—The eulogy upon Rufus Choate, given by Professor Parsons before the Cambridge Law School, on Thursday last, was not one of indiscriminate praise, as is too often the case on like occasions. He does not think Mr. Choate's studies took so wide a scope as some have supposed, and is confident that he was not a good student of metaphysics, or well posted in religious controversies. Mr. Choate's stability in the faith of his childhood, so gratifying to his pastor, Dr. Adams, is explained by a remark he made to Judge Parsons, to the effect that, fortunately for himself, a certain belief had been implanted in his mind in childhood. There it stood unmoved. And he was unwilling to listen to arguments against it, or to consider the question as open, because, said he, "I dread the laceration of mind which must be caused by rending away a faith once deeply and firmly rooted," and he quoted from Edmund Burke a passage expressing strongly the same sentiment.

—Ex President Fillmore and his wife paid a complimentary visit to Gov. Banks, at Boston, a few days since.

—Rev. Dr. Lowell, of Boston, has been settled over his present parish since 1806; and Rev. Mr. Richardson, of Hingham, has been settled over his parish since 1807.

—We stated last week that A. D. Richardson, Esq., the Pike's Peak correspondent of the Boston Journal, was dangerously ill at Fort Smith, Ark. Recent letters have been received from Mr. R. announcing his entire recovery.

—Four members of the Vermont Legislature soon to meet (three Representatives and one Senator), married sisters, the daughters of David Cobb, of Windham, the present Secretary of State also taking one of the family. Although this "panel is exhausted" there are lots more of excellent Vermont girls left.

—There is a printer in Utica who has just finished walking six hundred miles before breakfast. He commenced 17th April last, and has walked every morning, before breakfast, from two to ten miles, the average being four miles per day, twenty-five miles per week, at the least calculation. He has gained both flesh and strength since he began.

—Among the resolutions introduced at the recent Western Virginia M. E. Conference is the following, which may be said to partake somewhat of a personal character:

Whereas, Brother Clawson has up to this time been disappointed in his expectations of anticipated fortune, and, whereas, his anticipations have been the means of producing financial difficulties.

Resolved, Therefore, that this Conference earnestly solicit the brother hereafter to incur no further debts on the expectations of said fortune, until developments shall be made sufficient to warrant an assurance that said fortune will absolutely be realized.

—Mayor Weaver, of Pittsburgh, has positively prohibited the running of cars upon the city railroads on Sunday. An extended correspondence has taken place between the Mayor, the citizens and the companies, and the result is that the Sunday travel is forbidden.

Madame Jumel, Widow of Aaron Burr

We have heretofore announced the arrival of this distinguished lady in our midst, whose visits to Saratoga are as regular as the seasons, and whose annual return is looked for with as much pleasure as that of a long absent friend.

She comes here ostensibly to look after an estate which she owns, located near our village, but like all other ladies, she mingles with, and seems to enjoy, the festivities of this gay watering place with as much delight as if she was the reigning belle of the season.

Madame Jumel, once the wife and now the widow of the celebrated Aaron Burr, is indeed a very remarkable woman. Although she has outlived most of her cotemporaries, having attained to upwards of eighty years, she seems to be just as full of life and vivacity as she was forty years ago, apparently possessing all her faculties unimpared.

She still keeps up her splendid country seat, which is located at Washington Heights, on the Island of New York, and which she has owned for upwards of half a century. This residence, which is unsurpassed for the beauty of its location, was at one period during the revolutionary war the head quarters of General Washington, while the American army were encamped at Fort Washington. The mansion and grounds have been adorned by Madame Jumel, by many rare objects of arts, collected by her during her travels in foreign countries.

Nothing seems to afford this lady more delight than to sit down with a friend and recount the vicissitudes of her long and eventful life, and the varied scenes through which she has passed, both in her own country and in Europe. She has no hesitancy in giving her life as the wife of Aaron Burr, and although she has voluntarily dropped his name and appears to take no pride in having been associated with one who was so distinguished among American statesmen, yet whilst sojourning in foreign countries, she has usually traveled under the name of Burr.

This lady, with an ample fortune at her command, dispenses it for the encouragement of benevolent and praiseworthy objects and to benefit her friends—with a consciousness that she has glided thus far down the stream of time without anything on her part to cause regret for the past or fear for the future. She seems to be happiest when contributing to the happiness of those about her. We hope the evening of her days may be as happy and serene as her past history has been prosperous, and that she may continue to have her annual visit to Saratoga Springs for long years to come.—Saratoga Sentinel.

Encounter with a Shark.

On Friday evening last, about 10½ o'clock, as three young men, J. B. Hamilton, Jno. White, and S. Mortimer Williams, of this city, were rowing through Hell Gate, bound for Harlem, in the row boat "Linda," a huge shark, attracted probably by the bright light of a lantern (which they carry with the boat at night) rose to the surface within an oar's length of the side of the boat. One of the party having a revolver immediately discharged three shots at the head of the monster, which was out of the water at the time.

The bullets did not seem to have any effect, for he headed across the bow of the boat, his fin and head being visible. The party rowing "backed water," and as the shark crossed the bow, within three or four feet, he received a thrust from their boat hook which seemed to make him somewhat livelier in his motions. He also received three or four more bullets from the pistol, none of them fired at a greater distance than six feet from him. He kept close to them, swimming in a circle, and several times went completely around the boat, just out of reach of the boat hook. The party then pulled the boat to shore, when one of them went up to Dunlap's Hotel to procure assistance to dispatch the monster, but his story received no credit, and he was laughed at.

They then pulled out into the stream, and after loading their revolver, headed toward home. They had not proceeded very far when the shark rose directly in front of the boat, about eight feet off, coming directly toward them. Williams, who was standing up in the bow of the boat, discharged the pistol twice directly into the monster's head. This had the effect of turning him a little out of his course, and he sank and went under, rasping the bottom of the boat; his head rose out of the water directly alongside of the party steering. He seemed to be about fifteen feet long (judging from the length of the Linda, which is seventeen feet.)

Their amunition being about exhausted, and bullets seeming to have but little effect on the shark, not caring to risk too close an encounter with only their boat hook for a weapon, lest his sharkship might with a gentle flap capsize the boat, they were compelled reluctantly to leave his company. During the encounter the party fired at him thirteen bullets from their revolver, and struck him with the boat hook four times. The boat was in his company about half an hour, he seeming quite deliberate in his motions. They were very ambitious of capturing him as a prize, and if they had succeeded in killing him, would have endeavored to tow him down to the Bath, where their boat is kept. Brooklyn Times, Sept. 27th.

A New Idea for Firemen.

[From the Indianapolis Journal.]

A correspondent of the Chicago PRESS AND TRIBUNE urges firemen to reverse their mode of using water at a fire. Instead of placing the engine at the cistern and forcing water a long way to the fire, to put the engine at the fire and suck water a long way from the cistern. In other words to turn all the hose into suction hose except the few sections necessary to move conveniently about a fire. He says it will give them a greatly increased power, as it certainly will, and prevent bursting, which is a common disaster where a long line of hose is used. There are several difficulties in the way of an execution of his suggestion.

First—A length of hose properly constructed to resist collapse, and keep the interior always open and free, sufficient to supply an engine a thousand feet from a cistern, would be utterly unmanageable. It would weigh more than a company could pull if they had nothing else to pull, and no common house would hold it. It won't wrap up like ordinary hose.

Second—It is a matter of very considerable doubt if any engine could so completely exhaust the air through such a length of hose as to draw water at all. It might be done, for all we know to the contrary, but it would take a long time to do it, and that time would be lost just when it would be the most needed, at the beginning of a fire.

Third—The cost of such a length of suction hose would double the expense of establishing a fire department, for the "suction" is a costly institution as City Councils well know. Ordinary hose, which the writer in question seems to think would answer very well, could not be used at all. The very first stroke of the engine that took the air out of it would collapse it. The pressure of the air outside would crush it together instantly, and water could not pass. Let the writer undertake to suck the air out of a bladder and he will see what the effect of his suggestion would be. Besides ordinary leather hose is not air tight, and cannot be made so. It is hardly water tight. With common hose, therefore, the suggestion meets this dilemma; if it is air tight, the exhaustion of the air by the engine will collapse it and prevent the water from passing; if it is not air tight, it can't be exhausted at all, and consequently water can't be drawn through it. The writer seems to think his discovery a marvellous one. We trust he may encounter somebody's explanation, if not ours, that will undeceive him.

A NEW BOOK
—BY A—
SOUTHERN AUTHORESS.

Beulah,

By AUGUSTA J. EVANS, of MOBILE, ALABAMA. One large and neat duodecimo vol. Price $1.25.

The scene of this story is laid in one of the Southern cities on the gulf. Beulah, the heroine, is an orphan of the Jane Eyre type, endowed with such extraordinary strength of will and intellect, and so resolute a spirit of independence that she conquers her way from the destitution and menial duties of childhood to the highest rank in literary and social life. Proud, sensitive and self-reliant, she spurns all offers of aid and protection, the acceptance of which might lead the world to doubt that she was the author of her own success, and many of her acts have the appearance of wayward obstinacy that makes her a puzzle to her friends. Not the least strange part of her conduct is her treatment of her generous, but stern-willed guardian, Dr. Hartwell, who is bland, not withstanding her affection for him, she repeatedly and unaccountably refuses. The contrast of these characters, and the well-planned conflict of wishes between them, are represented with most effective skill, and give a continuous and absorbing interest to the story. But it is not the importunities of her lover, nor the severe experiences of poverty and the taunts of vulgar and ill-bred acquaintances in the circles in which, while pursuing her education, she is compelled to move, that annoy the heroine.

The writer, Miss Evans, is a lady of Mobile, hardly twenty-three years of age, who, it is said, can fairly lay claim to the accomplishments and genius which she has bestowed on her heroine. She has, at any rate, established a rank among the best novelists of her sex whom our country can boast, and we do not remember any work of fiction which has been produced in this country for years, which is written with more power, and is more full of promise than "Beulah." She has achieved a decided literary success, a success which will at least be as cordially recognized at the North as at the South.—N. Y. Evening Post.

SOMETHING NEW!!!

MITCHELL'S PATENT

Metallic Tipped Boot and Shoe.

An improvement has been applied to Boots and Shoes, by which a Great Saving in Expense is made. Every Boot and Shoe Dealer knows that Children will wear out at the toe the best constructed shoe in four to six weeks, and that it has hitherto defied the skill of manufacturers to obviate this difficulty.

THE "METALLIC TIP,"

meets and overcomes it. A small piece of copper is neatly fastened to the toe of the Boot or Shoe affording a complete protection to it, and rendering the efforts of the most inveterate stamper ineffectual to kick or wear it out.

We present this invention with the fullest knowledge of and experience in its Practical Utility. Having now for nearly two years been subjected to the severest tests, it has by its own intrinsic merits, actually surmounted every objection that could possibly be brought against it, as the accompanying certificates, which are but a fair average of hundreds of others will abundantly corroborate. We have no hesitation in saying that the Metallic-Tipped Shoe is destined to entirely supercede, for Children and Youth the old style; and we consider it a moderate statement, that one pair of the Metallic Tips will outwear two to three pairs of the old style, making a saving of nearly two thirds in the expense of shoes.

MESSRS. WADSWORTH AND WELLS,

MONETARY

Thursday Evening, October 6, 1859.

Exchange fell another quarter this morning, the rate for the day being 1¼ premium. Comparatively the demand is light. All the banks seem to be working easier, and report more ability to take whatever produce and other business paper that offers. Currency is in better supply.

Gold 1½c, with no demand. The day has been quiet, with a fair degree of activity.

Our railways are doing a fine business. The net earnings of the Galena, during the last week, were equivalent to two per cent. on its entire capital stock. This fact will assist very materially to inspire confidence in the business of the West. Let the good work continue.

The Wheat market opened very dull this morning, and sales of Spring were made at a decline of 1@1½c on yesterday's prices; but after the receipt of the New York dispatches, which contained information of a limited export demand, holders were strengthened, and the market regained its former position—closing firm. Red Winter Wheat was in active demand and scarce. The day's transactions foot up about 75,000 bushels, at 90@92c for No. 1 Red; 80c for No. 2 Red; 75@77c for No. 1 Spring; 73@75c for No. 2 Spring; and 69@70c for Rejected Spring—the market closing firm at 74½c for No. 1 Spring, and 74¼c for No. 2 Spring. The Flour market was also weak and inactive at the opening, and sales of choice brands were made at a decline of 12½c. The firmness in Wheat towards the close, however, had a favorable effect on Flour, and holders were less disposed to make concessions. About 1200 bbls changed hands at 4.00@4.12½ for medium to choice Spring Extras, and 5.12½ for White Winter. Corn, under a demand to fill out a cargo, was firmer, and sales of No. 1 took place at 73@74c, and of No. 2 at 72c—an advance of 1c. Oats were in fair request, at a decline of 1c, which sellers did not generally submit to. About 18,000 bu were sold at 28c@29c for No. 1 in store—mostly the outside figures. Barley was duller, and declined 1@2c, with sales of about 5,000 bushels at 53@55c for No. 1 in store. Rye steady, with a fair demand at 61c in store. Timothy Seed in active request; but buyers and sellers are 2@3c apart, and operations are light. The sales to-day range from 2.12½@2.13 for good quality. Highwines inactive and nominal, at 27c.

Freights to-day were unchanged. The rates were: Wheat to Buffalo, 7@7½c; Wheat to Ogdensburg, 12½c.

Export Demand for Wheat.—To-day on 'Change dispatches were received from New York, giving information of a limited export demand, which had the effect of stiffening the market considerably. According to the quotations of the Liverpool Circulars, the margin so far is against shippers; but as there is none of our new crop in European markets, and as quotations are based on the inferior crops of 1857 and 1858, it is natural to suppose that present shipments will command better prices. A few weeks, however, will tell. During the past week, 500 brls of flour were shipped from New York to Liverpool, at 2s. 9d. freight. There have also been exported about 10,000 bushels of wheat (part of it Chicago Spring) at 5d. freight. In yesterday's New York papers, we also observe, that 7000 bushels more have been shipped at 5½d. freight.

Cincinnati, October 5.—Receipts, 4211 bu wheat; 7,781 bu oats; 1385 bu barley; 1534 bbls flour; 545 bu corn. The Gazette of this morning reviews the market as follows:

In our Flour market a better feeling is observable; there is not a very decided improvement in prices, but more interest on the part of buyers.

For Wheat there is also more inquiry, mostly for the local trade and for account of near by mills. Two and three cents per bushel higher was obtained for prime qualities of Red. Oats are influenced unfavorably by the heavy receipts. Corn continues in good demand, but the near approach of the time for gathering this season's crop has a tendency to ease any demand which is not pressing for present use. Barley is dull at 65@75c for Fall. Rye very firm at 77@80c asking; there is little arriving. Whisky was again advanced. Sales for several days have greatly reduced the stock in store, and have been mainly on account of a regular shipping trade with the West and South.

St. Louis—Oct. 5—Flour inactive and dull; sales 1,150 brls city supurfine at $4.20 and on private terms, and a few brls low grade country at $3.75. Wheat is higher and the receipts are very light; sales at 77c for poor fall; 83@94c for spring, common, fall and club: $1.00@1.05 for prime fall; and $1.07@1.12½ for choice. Corn held at 95c. Oats advanced to 45½@51c. Whisky—300 brls sold at 30c. No movement in Provision. Mess Pork is held at $14@14.50. Choice lots of Lard would sell at 10½ to 10¾c; Bacon at 7½ to 8c for shoulders; 9¾c for ribbed sides, and 11½c for clear.

Boston, Oct. 4.—Receipts, 9,074 bbls flour; 4,035 bu oats; no corn or rye.

Cleveland, Oct. 4.—There seems to be no prospect at present of any improvement in Flour. Sales have been confined to trifling retail lots. Prices are unchanged and buyers scarce. Common to choice red wheat extras range from $4.75@5, with several small sales at the inside figure. Double extras from white wheat are held at $5.12½@5.50—the latter being the outside figure for favorite brands for retailing purpose. Rye Flour firm at $4 25. Wheat—There has been no change during the week. Sales have been steady, and the market closed quiet at last week's prices—$1.03 a 1.05 on track for red, and $1.14 a 1.15 for white. Corn—The market has improved. Last reported sales are quoted at 78c. Some parcels from store are held at 3 to 5c advance on these rates. Oats—The Lake Superior and home demand has sent prices up to 37 a 37½c—closing firm. Barley nominal at 55 a 60c. Rye steady at 73 a 75c.

Receipts and Shipments of Produce at Toronto.—The following exhibits the shipments of wheat and flour, from the 15th of August, the commencement of the cereal year, up to the 24th of Sept.:

New York, October 4.—Receipts, 25,166 bbls flour; 34,572 bu wheat; 15,642 bu corn; 51,493 bu oats; 234 bu rye.

Toledo, October 5.—Receipts, 1474 bbls flour; 6,058 bu wheat; 1046 bu corn. Flour—Sales 100 bbls at $4.50; 50 bbls at 4.60; 100 bbls choice extra at 4.65. The following are the quotable rates for various brands: Fine Flour, 3.25 to 3.50; Superfine, 3.75 to 4.00; extra, 4.50 to 4.75; double extra and fancy, 5.00. Rye flour 3.75 to 4.00. Wheat—Sales of 1000 bu white at 1.08. Corn—77c. Rye—65c. Barley—Spring, 50c; Winter, 55c. Oats—32c.

Oswego—Oct. 4.—Receipts, 76,273 bu wheat; 243 bbls flour; 17,109 bu barley; 2,210 bu rye, with a tolerably good milling demand for spring wheat, the market opened firm, but closed heavy. Sales 9,000 bu Milwaukee club at 95c, and 3,000 bu Canada club at same quotation. Not much inquiry for white. Corn market continues bare. Barley inactive. Rye unchanged. Sales 2,200 bu Canadian at 72c. Oats wanted. Peas quiet.

Detroit—Oct. 5.—Receipts, 5,532 brls flour; 7,488 bu wheat. 230 bu corn; 1,365 bu oats. The Tribune says:

Notwithstanding the heaviness of the New York market, the fact that but little more than enough wheat is offering to meet the requirements of our local trade enables holders to obtain the prices which has ruled so far the entire week, say 107c for fair white. If there were any considerable lots offering, there would have to be a slight abatement. Sales 1600 bu fair, and a lot of 350 bu do, both at 107c. No choice samples offering; the best would bring 110c. There was also a sale of 300 bu amber at 95c. Flour is without particular change, but finds slow sale. We quote 4.25 to 4.50 as the range of red single extras, and 4.50 to 4.75 for white do—outside figure an extreme one. There is no corn here; nominal rate 80c. Oats are very scarce, and continue tending rather upward. Holders ask 36c, and there are buyers at 34c. Barley and Rye in brisk demand at 115c per 100 lbs for prime Barley, and 106c to 110c for rye.

Rochester, Oct. 4.—The weather is fine and there is more doing in our market. About all kinds of fall produce come in pretty freely, but prices are quite firm. Within the week past there has been considerable wheat sold at rather better prices. White Canadian and Genesee have sold at from $1.14 to $1.20. An effort has been made to advance flour, but it has hardly succeeded, though it may be called firm. Coarse grains are somewhat better. In apples there is a great trade and steady prices. Hay has become more scarce, and the nigh rate of $19.00 has been paid.

Albany—Oct. 4.—The offerings of Wheat are not large, and we notice some considerable inquiry for prime samples White, with sales of 5,100 bu Canada White at $1.26 a 1.27; 589 bu mixed Canada at $1.15. Corn is in good demand, with limited offerings; sales 4,100 bu Western mixed in store on p. t.; 2,000 bu to arrive at 92c. Oats in better supply and lower, with a good demand; sales 18,500 bu at 40c, weight, for Chicago; 41c, weight, for State and Canada East. Barley is in good supply; holders are firm, but the purchasers do not meet them; there is considerable Canada West arriving, but mostly purchased by dealers here at Oswego.

Shipment of Flour and Grain from Janesville.—The following is the amount of flour and grain shipped by railroad from Janesville during the month of September: Flour, 1,804 brls; wheat, 163,362 bushels; reducing the flour to wheat, the total number of bushels shipped during the month is 172,380. This is nearly 7,000 bushels per day. If we add the amount of wheat purchased by the mills, manufactured into flour and sold for home consumption, there will be an aggregate of about 9,000 bushels per day, or a total aggregate for the month of 234,000 bushels.

Montreal—Oct. 4—Flour—Very little arriving or for sale, and market quiet. Superfine commands $4.70@4.80; fancy $5.05; extra dull at $5.20@5.40; No. 2 wanted at $4.60 for good. Wheat firmer but without sales; No. 1 Chicago spring held at $1.00.

Milwaukee—Oct. 5—Receipts, 1492 brls. flour; 61,087 bu wheat; 641 bu oats; 887 bu barley; 154 bu rye. The wheat market opened actively this morning at a decline of ½c on No. 1 Spring. The receipt of the New York news reporting flour 10c lower, was followed by another decline of ½c in the standard grade. Extra ruled about the same as yesterday. Sales amount to some 40,000 bushels, at the following prices, in the afternoon: Extra, 79@80c; No. 1, 74@75c. Flour was less active, and though heavy, was not lower.

Receipts at Tidewater.—The receipts at tidewater of Flour, Wheat, Corn and Barley for the fourth week in September, in 1858 and 1859, have been as follows:

	Flour. bbls.	Wheat. bu.	Corn. bu.	Barley. bu.
1858	70,700	264,300	480,500	91,000
1859	28,700	245,900	172,500	34,000
Decrease	42,000	18,400	308,400	57,000

The aggregate of the receipts of the above articles so far for the years 1858 and 1859, have been:

	Flour. bbls.	Wheat. bu.	Corn. bu.	Barley. bu.
1858	1,249,000	6,006,000	4,521,900	573,500
1859	272,200	1,447,100	2,271,000	245,600
Decrease	976,800	4,558,900	2,250,000	328,200

Reducing the Wheat to Flour, the deficiency in the receipts of 1850 is equal to 1,888,750 bbls of Flour.
